Venue Hire

In the historic heart of the City

Hire the Museum of Cambridge, a unique location in Cambridge's city centre.

A short walk from the city centre and across the Cam, the Enid Porter Room at the Museum of Cambridge is an ideal space for meetings, workshops, talks, gatherings and pop-up events.

Accessible via public transport, this versatile room accommodates up to 35 people in a lecture-style setup or 30 in a workshop configuration, offering flexibility tailored to your needs.

Available to hire:
10am – 5pm, Monday – Sunday

Duration	Standard rate	Community rate
1 hour	£45	£25
Half day (3.5 hours)	£120	£75
Full day (7 hours)	£250	£150
Out of hours fee (5pm – 9pm)	£60/hour	£40/hour

Community rates apply to registered charities and small business with fewer than five employees.

We offer:

- Complimentary tea, coffee and biscuits
- Projector, laptop and Wi-Fi
- Presentation equipment available
- Kitchenette with mini fridge, counter space, plates and cutlery
- Access to a public courtyard
- Free entry to the Museum, perfect for exploring during breaks
- A dedicated staff member to assist with any questions

The Enid Porter Room offers level access entrance, with an accessible toilet onsite at the Museum. We also have an induction hearing loop available.

We are proud to partner with the local independent café, Bridges, offering a 5% discount and free delivery for our venue hire clients.

Curious how others enjoyed our space? Here's what they had to say!

“Ideally situated to head into town for breaks or wander to the river”

“A great venue for bringing people from organisations across Cambridge together”

“It was such a breeze hiring the Enid Porter room, the team were lovely”
